2. Website use

You may use this website for lawful informational purposes and to make genuine business enquiries. You must not misuse the website, interfere with its operation, attempt unauthorised access or use its content in a way that breaches applicable law.

3. Information and enquiries

The website provides general information about ViaMax Solutions Ltd, its areas of expertise, consulting services and BusinessBook ERP. The contact form prepares an email in your email app for your review and sending. It does not create an online account or confirm that an enquiry has been received.

4. Product availability and separate agreement

BusinessBook ERP is currently accepting enquiries. Product availability, scope, implementation, pricing and services require separate discussion and agreement. Nothing on this website creates a subscription, purchase, licence, service contract, free trial or commitment to launch a product by a particular date.

5. Accuracy and changes

We aim to keep website information useful and current, but information may be incomplete, changed or subject to confirmation. We may update, withdraw or correct website content without notice. Specific requirements and professional responsibilities must be confirmed separately.

6. Intellectual property

Unless stated otherwise, the website text, structure, graphics, wordmark treatment and other materials are owned by or used by arrangement with ViaMax Solutions Ltd. You may view the website for personal or business information, but you must not reproduce, adapt, distribute or commercially exploit material without permission, except where the law allows.

7. External links

The website may link to external websites or services for convenience. ViaMax Solutions Ltd does not control those sites and is not responsible for their content, availability, security or privacy practices. Visiting an external site is subject to its own terms.

8. Liability

To the extent permitted by law, the website is provided for general information and enquiries. We do not exclude or limit liability where doing so would be unlawful, including liability for fraud or for death or personal injury caused by negligence. Nothing in these terms affects rights or protections that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited.
